TO Morrow is appointed, in the Committee of the whole House, to take into Consideration, the Bill now depending, to Repeal a Clause in the Act of Navigation, to prevent the Importation of GOODS, the Growth of Asia from Leghorn; When it's hoped, every Gentleman, who has at Heart the Liberty of the Subject, and Interest of his Country, will Attend, that the Turkey Company may not gain a Monopoly of the Two greatest Branches of the British TRADE: The Cloth and Silk Manufacture, which if this Clause be Repeal'd, they will wholly ingrose. And it's hoped, no Member of this Honourable House, will be for giving them this exclusive Trade, unless they pay for it, as other exclusive Companys have done. Tho' should they give a Million for it, it would not be a Reparation for the Damages that would accrew to the Trade and Navigation of these Kingdoms.
